

You have the power to

Give hope

The gifts of organ, eye and tissue donation are lifesaving, hope-giving, and desperately needed. Today, more than 110,000 men, women and children of all ages, races and faiths are awaiting a lifesaving transplant.

You have the power to leave a legacy of generosity. Talk to your family about your decision to donate, and register your decision or learn more at organ.org/faith or scan the code here
